

The Haymarket Foundation (“we”, “us”, “our”) provides services to people experiencing homelessness, and other marginalised communities in Sydney.

What information do we collect:

We collect your Personal Information, including your name, email, phone number, age range, address, and payment information.

What we do with your personal information:

The main purposes for collecting your Personal Information are to:

- process your donation(s), provide you with receipt information and otherwise manage our relationship with you as a donor; and
- improve our fundraising activities.

We may also use your personal information to create aggregated data. We use this aggregated data to assist us to operate The Haymarket Foundation.

If you do not provide us with your personal information, we may not be able to process your donation.

Direct marketing

We also use your personal information to send you carefully selected information about The Haymarket Foundation that we think may be of interest to you as a donor, by email, telephone, SMS or online advertising. This may include:

- our newsletter
- invitations to our events and functions; and
- communications about donation promotions and campaigns.

You can opt-out of these communications at any time. Generally you can do this by unsubscribing via the unsubscribe facility in the communication we have sent you. You can also opt-out of receiving these communications by contacting us at privacy@haymarket.org.au at any time.

Who we share your personal information with:

We may disclose your Personal Information to our service providers, such as marketing and IT consultants, to assist us in achieving the above purposes.

For more detailed information about the way The Haymarket Foundation uses and discloses your Personal Information (including off-shore disclosures), please refer to our Privacy Policy at www.haymarket.org.au/privacy-policy/. Our Privacy Policy also includes information about how you may access or correct your Personal Information, and how to make a complaint about how your Personal Information has been handled.